Consort Road

The garden has been recently landscaped and includes a painted concrete terrace beneath a pergola-like structure (partly covered), and raised beds constructed from breeze blocks that create space for clumping bamboo and long grasses.

Also on the ground floor, with separate access to the garden, is a utility room with space for a tumble dryer and storage cupboards beneath a birch-ply workbench.

Upstairs there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a bathroom with a shower over the bath. The wide landing borrows light from transom windows above the bedroom doors. The two larger bedrooms have built-in wardrobes. The original floorboards have been stripped and limewashed.

The estate is well-maintained and offers each resident a free unallocated parking space in any of the three car parks.

The house is excellently located in the thriving area of Peckham. Recent developments along Queens Road continue to contribute to the area, notably new neighbourhood restaurant Kudu, the Blackbird Bakery under the railway arches, The Stillroom Italian Deli, Mama Dough's pizza restaurant, and a number of new independent bars. Nearby Nunhead Lane has a village-like feel, with a greengrocer, a fishmonger, deli, café and a new community centre by AOC architects.

Bellenden Road has become a centre for some excellent independent restaurants, bars, and shops, including Artusi, The Begging Bowl and Flock & Development Berging Bowl and Flock amp; Herd butchers. Newly opened Peckham Levels, off Rye Lane, hosts an active and varied programme of yoga/dance classes and workshops, and is packed with independent eateries. The open green spaces of Peckham Rye Park are a short walk away.

Peckham Rye and Queens Road stations are both half a mile away, running London Overground services to Shoreditch High Street and Dalston Junction in one direction and Clapham Junction in the other. Connections to the Jubilee Line can be reached at Canada Water (10 minutes) and the Northern Line at Clapham High Street (11 minutes).
